

2021 Four-Year Graduation Results for South Washington County Schools

The 2021 four-year graduation rate for South Washington County Schools (SoWashCo Schools) is 92.0%, surpassing the statewide four-year graduation rate of 83.3%.

Districtwide: Four-year Graduation Rates across Years

Schools: 2021 Four-year Graduation Rates

School Highlights

East Ridge High School

100% of Hispanic or Latino students graduated within four years, an increase of 10.0 percentage points.

Park High School

Increase in graduation rates for Hispanic or Latino students by 9.0 percentage points and English Learner students by 8.1 percentage points.

Woodbury High School

Increase in graduation rates for Black or African American students by 8.5 percentage points.

South Washington Alternative High School

Increase in graduation rates for students receiving free or reduced-price lunch by 8.4 percentage points